Step 2: Preparing Our Data (Cont.)

OK, so we've got some great data, we've validated the set, and we're ready to dive in.

Wait, is that a missing field? And why are some of these numbers incorrectly labeled?

Looks like we have some cleaning to do.

Whether you've collected your own data or are working with data prepared by others, you'll almost always need to devote some energy to cleaning.
